Lockdown Treasures There are some good things that come out of pandemics and happily I am able to testify to one of them. I have no wish at all for a fuss, but it seems appropriate and fair to let you all know at the same time that, having met just prior to 'Lockdown 2', Revd. Mark Slaney and I plan to marry this summer. Please feel free to send me all jokes about Methodist Ministers and their wives, daughters, etc. We hope that the same pandemic will allow those who wish to do so to join in our wedding service. renew 23.3 This is the chosen name (and chosen format) of the Renew Wellbeing venture that will eventually be held on our premises. A recent meeting of the Steering Group agreed that now is not the time to begin a new project and the opening date is postponed until such time as it becomes safer to meet in person. Meanwhile more detailed planning is underway and the relationship with volunteers is continuing via Zoom. Pam

The Macular Group have postponed the start of their meetings in our Church. Brenda
